A Message from Our President!!

September Greetings!

Back to school time always gives us a fresh feeling for learning something new, doesn't it! Scott Murkin was quoted, "The quilting sandbox is big enough for everyone. The more people we invite in to play, the more goodies we'll get." Couldn't we apply that to quilting skills too?

Well, our Miss Cindy Moeller has something in store for us this month. On Sept. 16, we'll have a workshop with Linda Hahn of Frog Hollow Designs. She will teach us how to "Rock that Block" twelve (12) different ways. How's that for a chance to learn? Piecing techniques are always valuable skills for us to learn, aren't they?

The trunk show with Karie Jewell of Two Kwik Quilters, sponsored by the Coastal Carolina Modern Quilt Guild (CCMQG), was a delightful opportunity to be inspired and challenged to create something new. Karie's patterns have so much energy to them, they fairly dance by themselves.

Miss Patti Marraro has added many new books to our library. We had much fun at Drop-In looking through them and imagining how we could use the new ideas in our work. I actually went home and started something NEW! Maybe the doldrums are a thing of the past?

Perhaps you will have the urge to learn something new or to concentrate on improving skills you already know. Just make sure that you.....

Have fun quilting!

Carol

2018 RAFFLE QUILT PROGRESS

Per Jan Willis, "Spectacular progress is being made on our quilt! The hand quilting is wonderful and is 3/5 finished. Rows are being expertly joined by Mary Frankle and Happy Ewbank. Carol Stens did an ok job machine quilting the borders, and they are waiting for the center to finish before being added. Mary Frankle is also handling the English paper-pieced diamond flowers for the border applique."

Paula Johnson and Linda Randolph have agreed to handle the tickets for the raffle. BUT FIRST.....we need to NAME our baby! Any and all ideas are being considered!

Please let Jan Willis know, if you are able to assist with the tasks needing to be completed!
